

32 HOUR JUVENILE GANG INTERVENTION

This lesson-based open-group juvenile gang intervention consists of two units of 10 lessons and one unit of 12 lessons for a total of 32 hours of programming.

It is an intensive intervention based on cognitive-behavioral, motivational interviewing, and social learning philosophies, and is designed to reduce the resistance to behavioral change and decrease antisocial behaviors, including gang activity.

Features:

- Open group/open admissions model supports flexible administration. New group members can be added at any time.
- Ideal for community programs, probation-mandated programs, community gang intervention, and alternative schools.
- Includes elements of motivational interviewing (MI) and cognitive-behavioral therapy (CBT).
- Summary/review elements provide easy documentation of participant progress and change.

The program consists of 3 units:

Unit G	Core change-focused risk factors (including substance abuse) program model. Helps identify feelings, issues, and risk factors, reducing resistance, and beginning the process of personal awareness and change.
Unit H	Resources in this general delinquency unit increase self-awareness with the specific objective of decreasing discomfort with the old choices.
Unit J	DVD-based gang prevention/intervention resource set, with lesson plans youth worksheets, and discussion elements.
